Market Review

The FBMS ("Index") jumped 2.07% Month-on-Month ("MoM") to close at 12,096 pts in December 2025. The Index outperformed the MSCI Asia ex Japan Index, which only gained 0.68% MoM in Malaysian Ringgit ("MYR") terms over the same period. Foreign investors remained net sellers of Malaysian equities, increasing their net sell by 81.20% MoM to MYR2.0 billion while local institutions were net buyers of MYR2.6 billion during the month. Bursa Malaysia's average daily transaction value ("ADTV") dipped by 22.30% MoM to MYR2.2 billion in December 2025. During the month, Sengheng New Retail (+30.30%), Bermaz Auto (+25.66%) and Petronas Chemical (+21.00%) were the key gainers while Inari (-22.72%), NexG (-20.00%) and Globetronics (-19.40%) were the key detractors. Sector wise, Industrial (+5.85%), Plantation (+3.13%) and Energy (+2.61%) were the key outperformers, while Construction (-4.83%), Technology (-3.54%) and Utilities (-0.90%) were the key detractors. Major developments during December 2025 included Bank Negara Malaysia ("BNM") maintaining the Overnight Policy Rate ("OPR") at 2.75%, reflecting a steady monetary stance amid moderate inflation. Key economic indicators such as robust industrial production growth and positive leading index trends signal sustained economic momentum, while the MYR strengthened to approximately 4.05 against the US dollar ("USD"), supported by resilient fundamentals.

Market Outlook

We maintain a cautiously optimistic stance on equities as markets sustain positive momentum, supported by resilient corporate earnings, moderating inflation, and growing expectations of policy normalization. Anticipated rate cuts by the US Federal Reserve ("Fed") and other major central banks in 2026 should provide a tailwind for risk assets and supporting valuation multiples. The pace of easing is expected to remain gradual, underpinned by softening inflation and stable labor market conditions. Emerging markets are likely to attract further investor interest, driven by a weaker USD, improving liquidity, and compelling relative valuations. Investors should expect volatility to persist amid geopolitical uncertainties, uneven policy signals, and potential profit-taking following recent rallies.
